Toronto broadcaster-turned-jewellery designer (everybody's doing it, don't cha know?) Terri Michael's line, Stoned Originals, is now available on-line (terrimichael.com). It features hand-soldered silver and gold (shown, lariat necklace, $200), and around-the-world gems like smoky topaz, citrine and freshwater pearls, with a portion of all sales from Toronto, Montreal, Calgary and Vancouver going to support women's shelters in those cities.
